Giovanni, Rex and Cainnleach, Regina Outlandium

To the magnificent Populace of the Outlands, stalwart subjects all, do We, Giovanni and Cainnleach send warmest greetings this late summer day.

As Summer becomes Fall, the weather turns and the leaves take on new colour. So too does the great cycle of the Kingdom begin its seasonal change. We will be holding Our Crown Tournament to determine Our Heirs during this month of September. We welcome this continuance of the Kingdom's strength and look forward to the might and dignity our Heirs will soon provide to Our lands.

We pray that the summer tourney season has treated each of you with new tales, new friends, and new reasons to continue in the Dream. We also have found new reasons to celebrate. Our travels to Pennsic War have been completed and We were enriched by Our time there. Our sincere thanks to all that attended Us and made Our time away from the Outlands feel a bit like home.

At Her Majesties request there will be a Queen's Prize on October 9th. This is a wonderful opportunity to have your arts and science talents be displayed, to learn new things, and to meet others that perhaps create similar works of art. This event will be highlighted by the Investiture of the new Baron and Baroness of Unser Hafen. We did announce at Baron's War that the new Baron and Baroness of Unser Hafen will be Sir Sekimura no Minamoto Akiranaga known as Sir Alexander and The Honorable Lady Mardanah al-Hindiyyah Our congratulations to them and best wishes. Please join us in the celebration of their investiture at Queen's Prize.

And yet, as we look back to Summer when Winter approaches, we should look back and thank Sir Deotrich and Mistress Leonora for their time and fine stewardship of the Barony of Unser Hafen. They will be sorely missed in this role but are rewarded with a well-deserved rest. Our sincere and personal "Thank you" to them. We have so enjoyed serving with Their Excellencies and the friendship created in Our Dream. We will fondly remember them always.

We would also like to thank Our Peers, particularly the Knights and the Order of the Pelican for their words, advice and counsel during the past few months. Their knowledge, heart, strength, and passion have lifted Us up.

Our kudos also to those good gentles that tirelessly support Us during Our many travels. The overwhelming care We have received reminds Us always, that truly no other Kingdom can compare to the mighty Stag!

Glory was a spectacular weekend! Many thanks to all of those from Unser Hafen who worked so very hard to not only make the event memorable but the hospitality they gave to Our visiting Royalty from the distant Kingdom of Artemisia and the Principality of Northshield was exceptional. It is to the years of dedication and fun that Unser Hafen has promoted that We now are ensuring the future of this event, with all three Kingdoms, at Glory Wars. We are so proud of everyone that has contributed to this dream come true!

Congratulations to Mistress Bennett upon her elevation to the Order of the Laurel at Stag's Con. We wish to thank all of those good people who supported Us throughout the day. The event was very busy and successful! The College of St. Golias out did themselves with offering everyone their hospitality and the food was phenomenal! Our Heartfelt thanks to Sir Jochen and Mistress Monika for the hospitality of their beautiful home while attending Stag's Con.

Many thanks to Our retinue and gracious populace of the Shire of Drygestan at Lonely Mountain. What a gorgeous site it is, filled with fun and relaxation. Congratulations to Mistress Helga for admittance to the Order of the Pelican and to Sir Qara Gan and Sir Kynan upon their elevation to the Order of Chivalry.

We hope to see all of Our populace at Silver Pass, Our Crown Tournament and at Our Heirs Coronation in November. Until then, warm tidings and safe travels.

Greetings good Outlanders,

Silver Pass is nigh upon us; make your plans to attend this most fun weekend in the cool mountains of the Outlands. We have tournaments for Rapier, Heavy arms, Archery, Brewing, Thrown weapons and the always popular (at least with the fairer sex) Rolling Pin toss. We will also host the Southern Semi-finals for the Wendover Bard with a shire bardic the following evening.

Arts and Science competition will judge Period Encampments! The award will go to the most impressive campsite. Even if you only have a mundane tent, you can enter. Voting will be by populace vote. Imagination and creativity are greatly encouraged. We will also have the new children's bardic workshop. Geared toward the smaller members of our kingdom, the workshop will cover voice, body movement and other aspects of the Bardic Arts. A Children's Bardic will be held after the workshop.

Musicians, dancers, spectators! Come once again to the drumming competition, this year at Camp Darbuka. Bring your instruments and your talent and your enthusiasm to drum camp. Dancers will judge the drummers, fine prizes will be awarded, and all will have a grand evening.

Brewers and vintners of the Known World—The great Silver Pass Brewing Tourney returns on Saturday. For information on documentation, go to http://sca_brew.homestead.com.

Let all who come by this missive know that the Canton of Hawk's Hollow does heartily invite all good gentles who seek old wonders and new to a great rekindling of a cherished and seasoned flame. On the weekend of September a great event shall be held within a tree lined valley, otherwise known as the Lost Burro Campground, to honor and restore this fire. Amongst the mountain peaks and mile-high evergreens, there shall be glorious competitions, incredible food and stories and song that shall linger in your hearts and minds for years to come.

New friendships shall be forged as valiant wielders of the arrow, eppee and sword shall gather in randomly drawn teams to vie for the honor of becoming Evan's Champions. As the sun sets and darkness falls across this fertile valley, the aromas of meat and spice shall sing to the senses as Aillin's Feast is served (grapes anyone?). Later into the night, a great fire will be drawn and the legendary Bardic of Tambrielle shall commence! Then, on the next morning, it all begins again!

Come travelers, and aid us in breathing new life into the embers of memory, stir the fuel of imagination and ignite this great adventure anew. Some of the faces may be old and others new, nonetheless, The Canton of Hawk's Hollow welcomes you!

Join us for a fun-filled event weekend and the possibility of becoming the team known as The Evan Mawr's Hawk Champions with three-person team events. The teams will consist of one archer, one heavy fighter, and one fencer, and chosen by a blind draw. This does not mean those left team-less will have nothing to do, Oh No!!! We are having tourneys, for LIGHTS, HEAVIES and ARCHERY. There will be a bardic (teams must compete), with the chance to become Tambriel's Champion and an A&S for all to enjoy. There are tons of KIDS' activities, including a favor tourney, in which kids will make favors for the fencers, scavenger hunts and archery. The TEENS will have activities for the 13-17 year olds. In addition to all of this, there will be unscheduled acts of RANDOM FUN, including the ever-popular Grape and Marshmallow Wars, and Cow-Hawk Egg Hunts going on all weekend.

Fighters remember your green cards please.

You can bring your alcohol, but please be discreet. We are sharing the site with mundanes, so quiet time will be observed after 10:00pm.

Make checks payable to SCA-Hawks Hollow Include SCA name(s), mundane name(s), proof of membership (if a member), and member number of all the people you are paying for, whether you are staying one or two nights, and a contact email or phone number.

Fortress Benefit Revel
Sponsoring Group: Barony of Caerthe
Date: Saturday, September 25, 2004

Location: 1950 West Littleton Blvd. Littleton, CO 80120
Brass Bowl: Suggested donation is $4.
Site is Dry
Time: Opens at 5:00pm and closes at 10:00pm

It's time for the annual fundraiser to benefit Caerthe's Baronial newsletter. This is your chance to get rid of all that extra stuff you've accumulated over the past year and to also get some really cool different stuff! As in years past, we take donations of SCA and mundane (but history related) items and auction them for a price. At the door, you will receive 4 tickets. You can also buy additional tickets at $1.00 each. Each donation will be displayed next to a numbered paper bag. Put your tickets (after you put your name on them!) in the bags of the items you would like to take home with you. At the end of the evening, one ticket will be drawn from the bag corresponding to each donation item. If your name is on the ticket drawn, the item is yours! You can increase your chances of acquiring your desired item by putting lots of tickets in the bag next to it!

We will also have our traditional potluck feast. Please bring a favorite dish that would serve at least six people to share. There is a small kitchen available to warm up your food if necessary. There are also a few electrical outlets available for your crock pots.

We'd really like to see as many donations as possible from our local artisans.

Special Note: A polling will also take place to discuss the possibility of forming a Canton in the southern areas of Caerthe. This polling is only for SCA members living in those specific areas of south Denver Metro. Please take a moment to express your opinions on this matter at some point during the Benefit Revel. The Polling Box along with Caerthe's Baron, Baroness and the Caerthen Seneschal will be available for your comments. If you live in the proposed southern canton area and you're not able to make it to the polling, the Caerthen Seneschal will take comments via email before Sept. 24th.
For more information about this polling and the zip codes in question please contact the Proposed Southern Canton's seneschal, Viscount Sir Sterling at email address schawnsmith@ems.att.com or by phone 303-703-8476 or Caerthe's seneschal THL Orfhlaith ni Dhubhain at 303-341-5765 or by email at seneschal@sca-caerthe.org.

Unto all fine gentles of these fair Outlands does the College of Saint Golias send warmest greetings!

Twenty-seven years have we of this fine College dedicated ourselves to the most honorable pursuits of our Patron Saint. Many great endeavors have we undertaken in our sacred quest for the finest Wine, Women, and Song. Upon the Sixteenth Day of October we welcome all good gentles to celebrate with us the Feast Day of Saint Golias, and to share the fruits of our labors.

The Celebration will commence at 10:00 am on the New Mexico Tech Athletics Field with a game tourney, since it was ever Saint Golias' duty to spread the knowledge of dice, cards, and other such challenges of wit and skill. Following the merriment, fierce combat shall commence to determine the new Defender of Saint Golias, as well as our Patron Saint's First Blade.

The evening would not be complete without feast and frolic, and both shall be had at the Socorro Holiday Inn Express Convention Center (1100 N. California Street, directions will be available during the day).

Alas, our feast, frolic, and tourney sites are dry; therefore, the most honorable pursuits of Saint Golias will be heartily celebrated at the after-revel following (site to be announced at the feast).

Directions to the site, a map, a menu, and a full schedule of events will be provided on the website.

To join our merriment and reserve your place at our table, please mail your prepaid reservation to Flainn Raighne (Matthew McCleary), 99A Bosquecito Road, San Antonio, NM 87832.

Office of the Chirurgeon - Kingdom Chirurgeon

Greetings Good Populous of the Outlands

The Chirurgeonate is in dire need of your help. Our numbers are greatly diminishing. It has come to my attention that part of the problem may be the myth that it is difficult to become a Chirurgeon. This is not true! One needs only to have a current first aide, CPR and SCA membership card and complete an apprenticeship with a warranted chirurgeon. In areas where there are no warranted chirurgeons, there are even greater possibilities. Once you become a warranted chirurgeon, you must keep certifications current and report once during the year in writing as to what has been done for the year.

All fighters can be chirurgeons too! The Kingdom of the Outlands has a special section of chirurgeons referred to as "field chiurgeons". The idea for this type of chirurgeon is to be available on the field when needed, but getting to participate in combat activities at the same time. The field chirurgeon works in conjunction with other chirurgeons on the sidelines to render care.

We need more master chiurgeons and chirurgeons for the safety and well-being of the Kingdom. Please come join us! See contact information in the officer section of the Outlandish Herald.

In service to the dream, the Kingdom & the Chirurgeonate,

Lady Monika the Fair

Kingdom Seneschal's Office

Unto the good folk of this glorious Kingdom,

I hope your summer adventures have been filled with excitement and that the roving dragons within our Kingdom (for I see their scales upon His Majesty's highway, often) have not hindered your travels or harassed you to greatly (especially all of you maidens out there). In fact, I hear that guards have been posted along all the public roads and highways to ensure safe travel to all as they journey to the fair Shire of Windkeep to witness the great spectacle that is Outland's Crown Tournament. If you have the means to attend and witness the discovery of Their Majesties heirs, I highly recommend it.

Along the topic of events, I am minded to offer a few words of personal thanks. My first words of gratitude go to Their Majesties and Their Excellencies of this Kingdom for the wonderful baskets of "Thank You" items they distribute to the Autocrats of the events They attend. Having done a bit of Autocrating myself, I can tell you that "thank you" gifts are one of those things that every Autocrat wishes he or she had for all of the truly incredible people (also known as volunteers) who give of their time and energy in giving form to this dream, but is usually without the means. Often Event/Autocrat budgets and time allow only heartfelt mentions and handshakes. These baskets help ensure that most, if not every one of the event staff will have some cherished keepsake for their efforts. I have been lucky to have received a few of these in the past, and treasure them all.

Secondly, my heartfelt thanks to those Autocrats who distribute these items to the event volunteers at the event. Often, an Autocrat is the most fatigued when he or she is receiving these wonderful baskets. Taking this into account, it makes sense that an Autocrat could be minded to wait until he or she has collected their energies before making them available to their volunteers. However, as well as the intention may be, I beg you all not to wait, for doing so is a dreadful mistake. Baskets get packed and forgotten, things break or spoil and you'll never have everyone together like the present. My recommendation is to respectfully call your volunteers to the back of the hall or (even better) ask them to meet with you after immediately after court. Give the chief coordinators (Co-Autocrat, Feast Coordinator, Martial Activities, Head Troll, etc.) first pick, but make every attempt that everyone gets something. Don't forget the Autocrat! Volunteers are the greatest wealth of this Kingdom. These baskets (and their proper handling) are an incredible means of increasing our Kingdom affluence!

One final note, I would like to thank the Unser Hafen Seneschal: THLord Nikolaos and my Northern Regional Deputy Baron Eliahu for their help in assisting me with my duties at the Unser Hafen Baronial Polling. The time and energy you provided, rendered great service to both your Kingdom and your Barony. My most heartfelt thanks to you both.

Tips and Suggestions:

* There is always time for the Troll.
* A seat occupied by a person's belongings should be treated as if that person were physically occupying it.
* It is always a good idea to dress for the evening BEFORE the sun goes down. Specifically for events in desert climates. Dress to stay warm, not to get warm!

Earl Marshall's Office - Equestrian Marshall

Greetings Outlands!

As equestrian activities begin to increase in the Kingdom, it is appropriate to begin to share answers to frequently asked questions. Topics will include: authorizations, event requirements (including insurance), minors, and marshallate activities. The Outlands utilizes the Society Equestrian Handbook for conducting equestrian activities which can be found online at: http://www.sca.org/officers/marshal/combat/equestrian/index.html

MOUNTED GAMES: Common games include: beheading the enemy, ring tilt, pig-sticking, javelins, quintain, mounted archery, mounted combat, and jousting (under experimental guidelines). Other less frequently exercised activities include, birjas and reeds.

MINORS: Minors under the age of 16 must wear hard-soled boots and a properly fitting ATSM-approved riding helmet. Minors must be 5 years of age or older to participate in equestrian activities. A legal guardian must be present at every event in which they participate and are on a horse. The appropriate waivers must be signed.

More to follow next month!

I look forward to future equestrian tournaments and riding with old friends and new!

THL Lady Dubhessa

Earl Marshall's Office - Kingdom Marshall of Fence

To the populace of the Outlands, Greetings!

First, I want to thank everyone for their input on the changes to our authorization procedures. I will be working on a draft version to present soon. In the meantime, I wanted to let everyone know that the Outlands will follow Society exactly for legal epee and schlager / heavy rapier blades. I also wanted to thank those who have provided input on the sidesword experiment that was conducted over the last two years.

I also want to thank all my authorizing marshals and will be publishing a full list of their names next month, so it should be easier to track one down when you need one.

Finally, I hope everyone has had a good tourney season, but now summer is almost over and it is time to start training for WAR! Baron's War, Clann Wars and others have provided us with training through the summer, but now it is time to polish your schlagers, form your units and look to your commanders in preparation for Estrella XXI in the Kingdom of Atenveldt

Don Charles Robert Blackstone

Herald's Office - White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings, Outlanders!

I hope this missive finds everyone in good health and good spirits.

There has been a backlog of submissions notifications brewing for some time, for which I offer the apologies of my office to the populace. Rampart has been working hard to make sure that submissions were getting processed in a timely manner, and due to the workload of the office was unable to keep up with this detail. The information has been available by either contacting Rampart directly or, in most cases, by accessing the Rampart site at:
http://www.wombatinfestation.org/rampart/

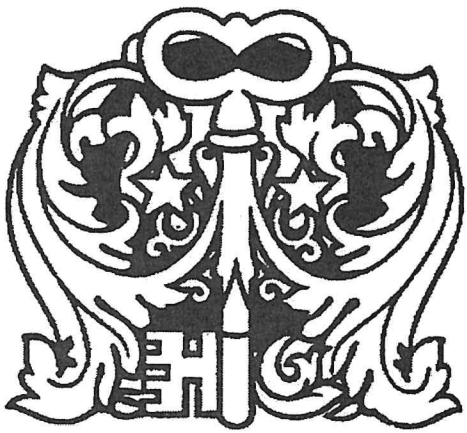
Rampart and I have been working together to get the backlog caught up. All the letters have been written, and should have been delivered by the time you read this. Some of you may have received several notices, and you may have resubmitted on earlier returns by acting on the information provided by your local herald or another source - please contact either Rampart or myself if you have questions about a notification you've received.

Regarding submissions, please keep in mind that all money must go through a local branch. If your local branch does not have a herald, please send your submissions through the next nearest group that does - there's a barony within relatively easy reach of almost every group in the kingdom. Rampart may not accept personal checks.

Field heralds will be needed for this month's Crown Tournament - please let Lord Cristobal, Plover Herald, know if you plan to attend and bring a tabard if you have one. New heralds may be needed to run cards. Entrants, if you have not already commissioned a herald for the processional march, I can put you in touch with voice heralds.

The last thing I have this month - if any teenagers or pre-teens are interested in heraldry, there are plenty of ways to be involved. I saw a young man doing processional heraldry at Glory, and he did a fine job of it. The only restrictions on minors as heralds are that they may not handle money, and they must have parental consent to be listed on the roster. The rest of the field is open to them, with parental supervision appropriate to their age.

On 25 July 2004, after consultation with the Outlands College of Heralds, I elevated the office rank of the following positions from "Pursuivant" to "Herald": Fretty, Gimlet, Palmer, Plover, Weel, Wharrow, and Wimble. The heralds holding these positions spend quite a bit of time keeping the heraldic needs of the kingdom met, and I feel that this change better reflects the skill and dedication required of these officers. The August 2004 Letter of Intent has included a request to Laurel to have the designators changed in the SCA Armorial.



In service and duty,

Lady Sorcha MacLeod

Seneschal's Office - Keeping of the Kingdom Calendar

Good Morrow, Good people.

Just some thoughts to try and make the process of having events placed on the Kingdom Calendar, easier for all.

PLANNING, PLANNING, PLANNING, PLANNING!

There. I got that out of my system.

Because Event Notices are accepted on a "First Come/First Served", basis, getting the Event Registration Form to me as soon as your group decides to hold the event is a good idea.

Each group should probably be working at least six (6) months in advance for a number of reasons which include being able to secure your desired site. While it is not always the case, it is usually easier to cancel a reservation than to scramble at the last minute to secure one. This holds true of Kingdom events also. The Kingdom Event Bid Form, which is available through the Outlands web site, lists all the possible Kingdom Events that will/may come up over the course of the year. I know putting together the bid for a Kingdom Event can be a bit time consuming but getting it done even before the Call for Bids goes out places your group in a more stable position with respect to acquiring a site.

What to do if no one has actively volunteered to autocrat? Even if the person whose name goes on the form is not the ultimate autocrat, using a temporary name allows your group to register your event in a more timely manner. Again, it is easier to call or e-mail me and have the autocrat's information changed than to risk losing the time period you are interested in using.

To clear up one issue that has come up a couple of times recently, the Kingdom Event Bid Form and the Event Registration Form are separate forms and I must have that Event Registration Form. This paperwork is part of what makes the event SCA-legal. Having your Event Registration Form filled out as part of the process of signature-gathering will make things go quicker and smoother if your bid is accepted.

Please make sure that all the information on your form is correct. It is probably a good idea, as you are collecting the required signatures, to have each signer read the form over and double check it for accuracy.

I have, on a couple of occasions, placed events on the Calendar without a notice in hand. If this is done it is always done with the understanding that this listing is temporary. I must have an original Event Notice with actual signatures within two weeks of extending the courtesy of listing the event, or it comes off the Calendar–no exceptions. Yes, I do mark it on my own calendar and track to make sure I have that notice in my hands.

Finally, each person who has held this position, that I know of, has said this in one way or another but I will repeat it because there are new Gentles coming along, offering to serve all the time. I must have an original copy with original signatures for an event to be official. Why does it matter? Because being official brings our liability insurance and other Society safeguards into play. Doing this by the numbers helps protect this game we love.

In Loving Service to the Dream,

THL Mavis

Proposed Change to Corpora IX.A.5

During a review of the Governing Documents it became apparent that Corpora Section IX.A.5 contains a discrepancy with existing youth combat programs. It reads:

"No person who has not attained his or her sixteenth (16th) birthday may be authorized in armored combat or the marshaling of armored combat. No person who has not attained his or her fourteenth (14th) birthday may be authorized for any form of Society combat-related activity…."

The Society Seneschal recommended that this be addressed by changing the wording to read "…No person who has not attained his or her fourteenth (14th) birthday may be authorized for any form of Society Adult combat-related activity."

Adding the word "Adult" removes the potential confusion with youth combat activities.

The Board ordered this proposal put before the membership for comment. Commentary shall be due by October 1, 2004.

A Message from Laurel Sovereign of Arms:

If anyone has questions about the following announcement, please contact me at whitestag@outlands.org - Lady Sorcha MacLeod

From the Cover Letter to the December 2003 Letter of Acceptance and Returns:

Begin Excerpt

From Laurel Devices for Consorts and Royal Heirs

This month we were called upon to reflect on the SCA's policy of registering devices for a consort (either for a kingdom or a principality), or for royal heirs apparent (also for a kingdom or principality). We have no evidence of a real-world consort having arms that differed from her husband's (except for marshalling). We likewise have no evidence of an heir apparent having arms that were not a differenced version of the arms of their parent, except for marshalling, and for fiefs that the heir apparent might have had (such as the Dauphiné, ruled by the dauphin, the heir to the French throne).

The practice of registering devices for the consort and heirs is falling out of favor in the SCA in general. Some of the newer kingdoms have not registered devices for their consorts and their heirs. We applaud the trend to a more period practice with regards to arms, or lack of separate armory for the consort and heirs.

Because the SCA device is parallel to real-world practices for arms, the SCA shall no longer register devices for consorts or for heirs to a kingdom or principality after July 2004.

Under this decision, consorts in kingdoms or principalities without consort's arms may use the undifferenced kingdom arms, and kingdoms may elect to allow both heirs to the throne to display the kingdom arms differenced by a label or other standard mark of cadency. This matches some period armorial display for royal arms.

Kingdoms and principalities that currently have arms registered for the consort or heirs may submit changes to the registered armory via the application of the grandfather clause. We shall require a poll of the populace showing support for changes to the armory. Note that this poll has not previously been explicitly required for the armory of the heirs apparent, but it seems appropriate to require such a poll, which is already required for consorts.

Kingdoms and principalities that currently have arms registered for the consort or heirs are encouraged to consider following period practice and to discontinue the use of the armory.

End of Excerpt

This ruling has caused much debate and uproar amongst the Society. There has been a great deal of false information and name calling over what was perceived to be a ban on use of consorts' arms. This is false. Once registered, always registered, holds true for group as well as individual (more so in some cases). This ruling does not forbid use of consorts' arms; it just does not allow new registrations. It is totally valid for any Principality or Kingdom to display consorts' arms without registration - and Crown Prince and Princess arms with period cadency steps (labels, mostly) to show the 'son and heir' status. They just will not be registered any more. No one is taking anything away - they can still be used in whatever fashion the individual groups want, they just will not be added to the copious paperwork already in existence. It is actually a freeing up of time and space - the Kingdom Heralds will not have to try and poll a populace for consent, which can be a very daunting task, and the Majesties and Highnesses can display the arms in whatever fashion and medium they wish.

PROPOSED CHANGES TO SANCTIONS PROVISIONS IN THE SCA GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

A few years ago, the Grand Council gave the Board of Directors a proposal for adding additional sanctions to the rather limited toolbox the SCA currently has for dealing with problem behaviors and problem people. The proposal was put out for comment; however, due largely to its length and complexity, the commentary was decidedly mixed, and the Board did not act on the proposal.

Nonetheless, there were some good ideas within the proposal, and the Board has returned to it several times over the past couple of years, seeking a way to take these good ideas and incorporate them into our rules. After considerable rewriting and discussion, the Board has developed a proposal for a change to the "sanctions" sections of the Governing Documents. Unfortunately it has proved impossible to streamline the proposed changes beyond a certain degree; there are too many scattered references in Corpora and the other governing documents to various sanctions that may be imposed by various people. In fact, part of the purpose of this proposal is to bring the language currently contained in Corpora into one place as much as possible, for ease of reference. The Board is seeking commentary from the membership on this new sanctions revision, which is based heavily on the work of the Grand Council as well as input from various Board members and past Royalty. Special thanks go to former Director Fernando Vigil, who did the bulk of the work on assembling this proposal in its final form.

This proposed revision is designed with several goals in mind:

To give additional options to Royalty faced with the challenges of imposing appropriate sanctions.
To gather the assorted sections of the Governing Documents concerning sanctions together and ensure compatibility between them.
To make the rules on sanctions clearer and easier to understand.
To codify the methods by which administrative sanctions can be applied and appealed.

While the proposal is quite lengthy, much of the language is not new; it would simply be moved to a single new "Sanctions" section in Corpora. Rather than try to explain all the changes in one lengthy introduction, the Board felt it would be easier to follow if the explanations were interspersed with the changes, appearing after each proposed change. The changes are listed in the order in which they occur within the current Governing Documents. However, those wishing to focus on the substantive changes should pay particular attention to the proposed new Section X, Sanctions, as that is where most of the actual changes would occur.

A complete discussion of all proposed changes, including what moves from where and how remaining passages are renumbered, can be found on the web at www.sca.org (the direct URL is http://www.sca.org/BOD/announcements/commentary.html?id=12), or you may request a paper copy from the SCA Corporate office (PO Box 360789, Milpitas, CA 95036-0789).

Following is a brief summary of the proposed changes:

SUMMARY OF MAJOR CHANGES

Creation of new Corpora section X. Many sections of the existing Governing Documents will move here.

Creation of "Lesser Royal Sanctions": includes the existing Banishment from the Royal Presence as well as a new option, Prohibition of Wearing or Display of the Arms of the Realm.

Creation of "Greater Royal Sanctions": includes the existing Banishment from the Realm and Absolute Banishment, and adds Withdrawal of Privileges of Rank and Exile from the Realm.

Requirements for notification of a sanctioned individual are better defined.

The already-existing rights of officers to impose administrative sanctions are clarified, as are limits to those rights.

The meaning of the phrase "action of the Board of Directors" in the By-Laws is clarified and defined.

Commentary on this proposal is requested by December 1, 2004.

In service,

Meg Baron
President, SCA Inc.
